

What is a Licensed Community Mental Health Center? (And where can I find one?)

Rhode Island has a Network of six private, nonprofit licensed community mental health centers, known as CMHCs: Community Care Alliance; Gateway; The Providence Center; Thrive Behavioral Health (Kent Center); East Bay Mental Health; and Newport Mental Health. Rhode Island’s network also includes a specialty provider, Fellowship Health Resources. This network provides comprehensive behavioral health services to adults with behavioral health needs. The CMHCs provide various behavioral health services including emergency services, general and intensive community-based outpatient treatment, substance use treatment, case management and other services. They may offer vocational and supported employment services, navigators who can help you get health insurance, tax preparation assistance, and housing support. If you receive services as a child, they will help you transition to adult services or programs provided within or outside their agency.

The Community Mental Health Centers are regionally based, see map below. As a RI resident, you may access services at any CMHC. For more information about location and hours of operation for each Center, refer to page 16. Residents of any town can access services at Fellowship Health Resources, which provide behavioral health services for individuals with mental health and substance use conditions. If you are experiencing a non-life-threatening behavioral health crisis, call 988 or go to BH Link or call any Community Mental Health Center. For after-hours emergency treatment: call 988 for behavioral health or 911 for medical emergencies, including overdose. See other options on pages 21, 22 and 24.

What to expect when you call for an appointment

When you call the intake line, you may get an appointment for an assessment with a staff member. They may also ask what type of insurance you have and discuss payment options. Some centers have a wait list for services, so don't be discouraged! If you are in crisis: refer to numbers above, call 911 or see page 22.

What to bring to your first appointment

Most of the centers recommend the following documents:

- Photo ID
- Health insurance card
- If uninsured, bring two pay stubs or two bank statements showing your electronic pay deposits, or your most recent federal tax return.

What to expect at your first appointment

The first appointment consists of an assessment, where you will discuss your behavioral health history and any current issues you may be having. Your clinician will use this visit to determine with you what your behavioral healthcare needs are.
